AN OBSC SALUTE TO OUR VETERANS

Show your pride in the USA and our Veterans at the OBSC's Veterans' Day Fiesta. The Pisciotas, Schmidlis and Goodins have been planning a Red, White and Blue extravaganza for Saturday, November 14; so show your pride by wearing your best red, white and blue attire. As usual, the party will start at 6:00PM and will cost the customary $10 for members and $15 for guests. The menu will be chicken fettuccini, garlic toast, a side salad and dessert. There will be plenty of red and white wine as well as blue beer. Sorry, no blue beer, just the amber waves of grain in our Tecate. After dinner, we will be playing bingo. Be sure to bring your single dollars to buy bingo cards and join the fun. The last few years of OBSC bingo has been lots of FUN for the winners and losers alike!

AN OBSC ANNOUNCEMENT!

Preparations are well under way for the annual Mardi Gras Party & Parade in February!! Elmer Parker has graciously volunteered to host the dinner; Agnes & Lew will organize and plan the parade. Agnes is officially announcing the 2010n theme: Your Favorite Holiday. This is a wide open theme to allow maximum (or minimum) creativity! You may celebrate St. Swithuns Day or Christmas in February, how about Festivus (for the rest of us). Maybe you have been dreaming of a tribute to Ground Hog's day!! Put on those thinking caps and plan to promenade through the streets of Cholla Bay on Saturday, February 13th!!

OKTOBERFIESTA

Rhea Dugan and her merry band of Mikes put on another terrific Oktoberfiesta on October 10. They ordered perfect weather for the afternoon's poker run and the evening's party. This is their third year and they really have fine tuned the event!! Rhea would like to formally thank Mike & Suzie Lynch who have acted as co-hosts this year. Other thanks go to Mike & Billie Carnes, Mike & Vicki Wright, John & Diane Heges, MJ Gooch and Shirley McDonald for their efforts to make Mike & Rhea outstanding party hosts! The German sausage from Schreiner's in Phoenix was barbecued to perfection and Rhea would like to thank Lew & Agnes Felton for their efforts in ~~smuggling~~ importing the food into Mexico. The raffle was a big success thanks to donated prizes from Rhea, Billie and MJ. The poker run was a lot of fun for the players as well. The runners visited the Boo Bar and Thirsty Parrot on the Malecon, drank at Capone's and the Black Dog and finally wobbled up and down stairs at JC's to get that last poker ticket. After dinner, new OBSC member and skilled card dealer, Scott Campbell, dealt some great hands. Annette Maynard and Rick Ellsworth took second ($50) and third ($25) place. Scott himself took the $100 FIRST PLACE with a new dealer behind the cards! Scott had a great weekend as he and Agnes learned they had passed the Arizona Bar exam the day before. Both Scott and Agnes did not pass any bars the entire weekend to celebrate their accomplishment. Thanks again to the Dugans and Lynchs for a wonderful day of OBSC fun!

ELECTIONS

The OBSC will hold our annual election of officers and board members at the general meeting on Sunday, December 13. Don Schmidli was conned into recruiting candidates. Those considering an official position should contact Don, otherwise lay low until December 14!
